To enable our readers to have a clearer idea of the news from China, we publish the following intelligence received by mail:

THE MINISTERS OF THE GREAT POWERS LEAFE SHARGHAF FOR PEKIN—RESSIAN POLICE—A DIFFICULTY IN PROSPECT.

A portion of the London mail of May 10 arrived per Messers, Dent & Co.'s stamer Y ang-trea June 28th, and, by her return to Hong Kong, have dates up to June 28.
In our last impression we noticed the arrival the English, French and American Ministers Shanghae, en route to the north. We have we to announce that they all left that place for in on June 15. THE SUPERVISORS IN THE JAIL-INSECT LIFE IN ty, now in session, repaired in a body to, and passed a careful inspection upon every part of the County Jail. From the developments of their visit, judging as well from what we saw ourselves, as from the expressions dropped and public has a right to expect such action at their present meeting, urging and as far as possible setting on foot reforms in our Jsil as thorough and entire, as they have been long delayed and

The Debtors and Female Wards are too small and confined, and this the Supervisors have it within their power to remedy by such action in the matter of a Hall of Records as may relieve the crowded space of the Court House, and make the second floor of the Jail more roomy. This can and should be done, and yet, in the present management of Jailor Hastings under Sheriff Gray, this would be but extending the area of filth and nastlness, exceeding anything we have yet witnessed in a public institution of sedly a coop for vermin, from which the public were fenced out by iron bars, lest they might "disturb the animals while feeding" on the prisoners, and had the list at the National Fair contained such classes, we give it as our opin on that the County of Cook, from its own insti utions, could have borne away all the award for the insect Cimex Lectularius (for which we regret no better English name exists than plain -bed-bug.) The Supervisors went the rounds with elevated noses, and eyebrows, and tightly drawn coat-skirts, while mattrass after mattrass mens of which went scurrying to and tro on the iron "bug-proof" bedsteads, or lay quietly platoons along the crevices.

ful state of things in the jail. A REVOLTING CRIME-THE WRETCH HELD T Bail in $1,000.—One of the most shocking and brutal crimes that ever disgraced our criminal calendar took place on Monday afternoon last, in the West Division. The family of a Swede, Andrew Kelson, reside in the upper part of a tenement house on Union street, near Owen, also occupied by other families. Caroline Kelon, the wife, has been dangerously ill and very near her death. The husband is an intemper ate man, and has not, it would seem, given his sick wife the attention and watchfulness her situation would rightly have demanded, too unmistakably to escape the most obdurate or rough their own home cares and necessities she has passed hours without an attendant.

On Monday afternoon a brute of a man, which is a scarcely deserves either name, one Lars Robin son, a Norwegian, found his way to the apart. state, and fiendishly made her the victim of his hellish lust. The moans of the poor woman reached the ears of her neighbors on the lower floor, who entered and tore the ravisher from his victim. The utmost excitement prevailed in that vicinity, which in some localities, would have resulted in the speedy death of the wretch without judge or jury. Robinson is a man about laughter, by whom he has, it is said, two children living.

The case was brought before Justice Akin in the Police Court, yesterday, and Robinson was held to bail in $1,000, in default being sent to jail. But for the the certainty that the sum is far above the means of the prisoner to procure, bonds for so atrocious a criminal, whom noth ing, we trust, will be permitted to save from the severest expiation within the limit of our laws. The woman is represented as being very low, with scarcely a prospect that she can long surive, but the evidence of the offence has pro ridentially all too plainly been committed to

OUT OF THE FRUING PAN INTO THE FIRE—
ON Monday evening a chap was found suspiciously busy with property not his own, in the fourth story of the Metropolitan Hotel, having made up quite a little package of clothing. To escape capture he made one grand rush and leaping into the hall, ran through the building to where his progress was interrupted by a balustrade, over which he bounded. It unfortunately protected an open well hole through the floors of the hotel, down which the thief fell a distance of over thirty feet. Both his ankles were broken. He is at the City Hospital under the care of Dr. Schloetzer. It will be a painful and severe lesson for Jones, on dishonest living.

The most important feature of the political news of last week, is the utter extinction which the Republicates and the anti Lecomptonites have brought upon themselves by a refusal to unite upon a ticket for Congressman. This result so ardently hoped for has been entirely dissipated by the declination of the anti-Lecomptonites to fuse. An address from the Republican Central Committee says:

"The rumers which have been affoat for the gery of his office, but so loth to break a link of the chain of superstition by which his chilody of the relies with which Rome is filled past lew days, relative to a union upon the Congressional ticket, between the Republican and anti Lecompton parties, make it proper and neessary for the Republican State Central Committee to state that no such arrangement will be made, as the leaders of the anti-Lecompton party, after making the first advances for this purpose, and after a favorable respanse on our part to their proposition, have failed to come to any understanding with us upon the subject. It is therefore, the duty of all Republicans to use avery effort for the election of the whole Republican ticket."

Mr. Murdoch, the Republican candidate for State Printer, has withdrawn in favor of the anti-Lecompton nominee, John O' Meara, but it is presumed the Central Committee will not consent to the arrangement, but nominate somebody clse to fill the vacancy on the ticket.
Murdoch was never considered here a first-rate

The Engineer, Hiram Andersou, was killed, probably by falling auder the Express car, though his body had not been got out at the date of our latest dispatch. The fireman was badly but not seriously cut. A most wonderful escape from death was made by Mr. Benton Halstead, express messenger, who had sufficient presence of mind to spring first to one side of the car and then to the other, as it rolled over, thus keeping on top the heavy iron safe and boxes with which the ear was filled. A valuable dog by Mr. Halstead's side when the accident occurred was killed. With the exception of the death of the engineer, and the sight highries received by the express messenger and the fireman, no p reco doch was never considered here a first-rat ublican anyhow, as last year, during th empton excitement, he announced himse

They fall with a deep groan—some with a wild cry of horror, the greater number with the intensely carnest plea, "Lord Jesus have mercy on my soul."

A Glasgow minuster, who visited the scenes of the revival, condemns these "physical prostrations," and believes they might have been prevented to a large extent had proper means to that end been taken at the outset. Much depends upon the education of the converts. The Glasgow minister remarks:

The latest intelligence from the North of Ireland is that the revival embraces nearly the whole of Ulster, including Belfast, Donaghadee, Antrim, Londonderry, Coleraine, Killinchy, Leitrim, Newtonlimavady, and other towns and districts.

A pamphlet narrative of the revival in the north of Ireland has been published. It is described as a great movement operating upon large masses of the people. The first "awakening" in Uister was at Connor, in country of Autr m—a thoroughly Presbyterian district, unhabited chiefly by small farmers and linen weavers. The district seemed a very unlikely spot for a revival, the people being a cool, shrewd, practical set, in love with argumentative preaching, and quiet, intellectual religionism. It began about eighteen months ago, was at first slow in its progress, but in time overspread the whole district. The meetings were for several months sober and still, without even responsive amens, or weeping.
